ITALIAN FATALLY SHOT FROM AMBUSH AWFUL WRECK ON EASTERN FLYER

WIFE WAS CAUSE OF A MIDNIGHT SHOOTING.

LOUIS OLI WHO IS ACCUSED OF SHOOTING LOUIS GRATIANO FROM AMBUSH.

Louis Gratiano Fatally Wounded and Louis Olio is in the City Prison.

As the result of the feud between Louis Olio and Louis Gratiano, two Italian laborers, both of whom reside at 2160 Glen avenue, Gratiano lies wounded with two bullets in his body in Fabiola Hospital, the shots having been fired from ambush by Olio, who is now in the City Jail.

The shooting was performed by Olio, who was feeling aroused by Olio's devotion to Gratiano's wife.

MAY PROVE FATAL.

The result of Gratiano's injuries cannot now be foretold. Fears are entertained that the shooting will have a fatal termination, because the injured man is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia which, it is thought, will aggravate the injuries occasioned by the bullets.

Olio, the assassin, did not come out of the encounter without marks of severe handling. A furrow extends in the middle of the forehead from the brow almost to the top as if made by a knife, while the left eye is almost entirely closed and the lid is suffused with blood.

SCENE OF ASSASSINATION.
The assassination took place in a lonely spot at the corner of Forty-first street and Broadway, about 11 o'clock last night. Three shots were fired. The assassin, Olio, hid behind a large eucalyptus tree at the intersection.

European Fleet Is Ordered Rushed to Port Arthur.

BERLIN, December 24.—An intimation has reached the Japanese Legation here that Russia will concede Japan's requests.

Inquiries made by the Associated Press as to particulars of this intimation, whether it came from Tokio or St. Petersburg, brought out nothing more than that a peaceful solution is now highly probable.

The British Government, it is understood from another source, has represented to the Czar that Great Britain deems Japan's demands just and earnestly expects that Russia will grant them.

This representation is supported by the utterances of the British ambassadors here and in Paris and in Vienna, who have informed the respective governments to which they are accredited that Japan, in the opinion of the British Government, will fight if Russia holds to the position taken in her recent note.

The Russian Ambassador here has for several days been inquiring freely what the opinions of the diplomatic corps are.

Yuan Shih Kai, the commander-in-chief of the Chinese army and navy, has taken steps for the rapid reorganization of the Chinese army. According to the Cologne Gazette's advice from St. Petersburg, Yuan Shih Kai proposes immediately to create military schools, with special training courses for non-commissioned officers and a cadet corps, a general staff and a military academy to be opened in 1905. The introduction of universal military service is also planned, as well as an increase of the artillery.

Yuan Shih Kai is reported to have advised the court mandarins to wait three years until the reorganization of the army is complete before declaring war on Russia.

Thousands of Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Almost every one, from personal experience, knows that the effects of any kind of severe physical strain are felt, first of all, in the small of the back—in other words, in those vital organs, the kidneys. This is as true in the case of the very powerful as it is with one of less strength, and it is especially true whenever the kidneys are weak or out of order.

The Great Kidney Remedy Swamp-Root, strengthens the kidneys and through them helps all the other organs.

WOMEN suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not always correctly understood: in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles. Perhaps you suffer almost continually with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, head aches and utter exhaustion.

YOUR poor health makes you nervous, irritable and at times despondent. But thousands of such suffering or broken-down women are being restored to health and strength every day by the use of that wonderful discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

Didn't Know I Had Kidney Trouble

I had tried so many remedies without their having benefited me that I was about to give up hope.

But then I met Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

It has given me great relief.

Now I am in Splendid Health

About 18 months ago I had a very severe attack of grippe. I was extremely sick for three weeks, and when I finally was able to leave my bed I was left with weakness, my appetite was dull and suffered from headaches.

I did not know that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble, but somehow felt the might be, and I began taking Swamp-Root as advised.

There is such a pleasant taste to Swamp-Root, and it goes right to the spot.

It has cured

every disease, making me stronger and better in every way.

It is a great relief to all sufferers.

Gratefully yours,

MRS. A. L. WALKER,

46 West Linden St., Atlanta, Ga.

THE MILD and extraordinary effect spent on other medicines, you really owe it to yourself, and to your family, to at least give Swamp-Root a trial.

Its strongest friends today are those who had a most given up hope of ever becoming well again.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery, Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, and a book telling all about women who owe their good health, in most of their lives, to its wonderful curative properties. In writing to Dr.

TRIBUNE. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottle at the drug stores everywhere.

CARMEN PLAN FOR A BALL.

THEY WILL INVESTIGATE THE DISCHARGE OF THEIR COMRADES.

At the semi-monthly meeting of the Carmen's Social and Benevolent Society held last night it was decided not to hold a social session next Wednesday evening, as is usually the case on the fifth Wednesday of the month. Those present thought that during the holiday season, the attendance at such a gathering would be too small to recompense the committee for arranging any entertainment.

The society will devote its efforts in the social line for the next few weeks towards preparing for the ball to be held in Maple Hall, Franklin and Fourth streets, on Thursday evening, February 11th. The hall will be elaborately decorated for the occasion and a large number of girls will turn out.

GIVE A SMOKER.

After the business of the evening was transacted last night by the Plumbers' Union and Sheet Metal Workers' Union the latter entertained the former at a smoker in the large room at Kohler & Chase Hall. An interesting program, consisting of singing, boxing contests, piano and organ music was rendered, and refreshments were served. The occasion proved a most enjoyable one.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

There was a short session of the executive committee of the Federated Trades Council to arrange for the meeting of that body this evening.

TO INSTRUCT DELEGATES.

On Wednesday evening, December 30, the legal and legislative committee of the Federated Trades' Council will meet the delegates to the State convention at Fredonia, and instruct them how to represent their local unions.

MEETINGS TONIGHT.

The Federated Trades' Council will meet tonight in Cooks and Waters' head-quarters, Broadway and Eighth streets, the housewives, painters, carmen, sewer workers and ma-doers in such cases, will investigate the matter and see if the charges preferred against the discharged men are true. If the union finds the men were acting wrongfully, it will do nothing. If they were discharged without cause, it will ask the company to reinstate them. This is done because if a railroad man loses his position, he can never get another one again anywhere in the country without a recommendation.

When the company discharges an employee, if it believed he is no good, it will either refuse to give him a recommendation or give him one so flattering that the one to whom it is presented by the Carmen will refuse to hire him.

The Carmen's Union is planning to, in the future, work in connection with the company towards bettering the service by having the men attend strictly to their duties. For some time past delinquent Carmen have been reprimanded at the meetings of the union for neglect of duty.

MYSTERY IS CLEARED AWAY.

SOLDIER BADLY INJURED. MAKES DYING STATEMENT

Youth Admits That He Hit Enemy With a Chair.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—A mystery set off by circumstances, which will probably result in the death of Thomas Finch, a youth of 14 years, confessed to having struck Mack over the head with a chair in the latter's room at the San Charles in Stockton, in defense of the fellow who was struck.

Mack, after being struck, climbed out of the window of his room to the roof of the hotel and walked to the room where he fell, then started to the street below, hit the head and shoulder of John B. Vogel, who was passing by, hitting the latter and suspending himself, what will probably prove fatal injuries. Vogel, who is known as a local expert, says the injuries are apparently only slight. Finch says the fight in the hotel room was caused by Mack attempting to extort money from him.

ONE DESERTER.

"Don't let the kids know how papa quit."

That was the message left to his wife in Colorado by E. H. Prince, a carpenter who committed suicide in Los Angeles. This man had been a loving father and husband; he had regularly sent money home to his family, but ill health came and with it a loss of employment. So papa quit.

The story is a suggestive one. This man showed a cheerful front to his daily companions, and within a few hours of taking his own life he chattered with his fellow-borderers in apparently joyful spirits. They did not suspect that despair was gnawing at his vitals. How many are around us today who are fronting those they meet with a smile on the face and misery in the heart?

It will be the verdict of men generally that this man did a cowardly thing in taking his life to shirk a responsibility, and this verdict will have justifiable grounds; but the dead should not be judged too harshly. This man was poor. He had worked faithfully to support his wife and children. He was past fifty, separated from his family, out of work. In ill health and practically penniless. The glad Christmas holidays were here and he had nothing with which to make his own lot cheerful or to contribute to the happiness and support of his loved ones in Colorado.

So he deserted. God forgive him, he was wrong; but when one is old and poor and out of employment, and with bad health making the evening of life still more sombre, it is not so easy to brace up and be a man. Poverty and sickness are terrible foes to encounter in old age. They take the heart out of a man, deprive him of the power to discern the path of duty and the fortitude to pursue it. This poor fellow might have done worse than to drop out of the ranks and let "missing" be recorded after his name in the roll call for life's battle. He might have taken to drink or the wretched career of a tramp, or he might have become a burden on the public and a clog and disgrace to his family.

It is better that the kids should know how papa quit than for them to know that he stood only as a camp-follower and an eater of husks with swine. In this pitiful suicide we see the contending emotions of moral cowardice and moral courage. The poor carpenter had not the moral courage to face some things but he was too brave to face some other things. There are many such. At least one may respect the pagan stoicism that cannot brook the loss of independence and self-respect. It is not in accord with the tenets of Christianity, but it is nevertheless a grave question in many minds whether it is not best to quit a life that can only be lived miserably.

What is the moral to this incident? None in particular. Hundreds of men would have promptly come to that man's assistance had they known his condition. But how could they know? Had he been capable of telling his story would have been received with cold incredulity. Had he been capable of telling it, he would have been incapable of committing suicide. Because he could not bring himself to go to the infirmary he deserted from the ranks. He would not go on the disabled list. Men more fortunate than himself in life's struggle will say he was a poor, weak devil. Perhaps so. God knows.

The whisky is getting so bad in the bars that they are talking of putting in a water supply.

The ten thousand dollar purse hung up by Cardinal Heenan for anybody who will kill Uncle Sam on his own dunghill will not be eagerly sought for. It is only big enough to attract second rate prize fighters in this country. A war trophy it is a gold brick.

Schwab's asseverations that the shipyard deal was on the square bear a curious similarity to Perry Heath's protestations of innocence of complicity in the postal frauds. Schwab insists that there was nothing crooked in the formation of the shipyard trust and the sale of the Bethlehem Steel Works. Heath scorns the idea that there was any grafting in the Postal Department. On this hypothesis everybody is innocent.

The Columbians continue to fulminate threats and to make absurd preparations for war. An attempt to reconquer Panama will be a farce, but a tragic farce. Unfortunately an ignorant valiantious people, isolated as the Columbians are, cannot be made to understand the situation or to realize the facts. They cannot appreciate the power of the United States nor recognize their own impotency. With a currency worth only two cents on the dollar and no navy, and an army that is a mere rabble, Colombia can do nothing save butt her head against a wall in attempting to invade the isthmus. But she seems determined to make the effort. The exhibition will be come, the consequences tragic.

PERSONS TALKED ABOUT.

Mr. Spend Cox, who is to write a biography of Cardinal Vaughan, finds that the Cardinal keeps a dog named.

This is a habit used by big-brothers, but it's most busy men, probably few men in the world as prominent as was Cardinal Vaughan writing in their little books.

Mr. Kellie Hurdle, who has just been suffering from appendicitis, is apparently the sole "red republican" in the British Parliament. At least he was the only member who voted "no" upon the address of congratulation to the nation upon the occasion of the marriage of the present Prince of Wales.

It is remembered that Joseph Chamberlain, now a strong imperialist, began his political career as a radical and republican.

The late A. D. Vandam was the son of Mark Vandam, District Commissioner for the Netherlands State Liberties, but lived most of his life in Paris. Mr. Vandam's "Englishmen in Paris," gained its once great vogue because every one took it for granted that the book was by Sir Richard Wallace, who died in 1890 and was to an unusual degree "in the know" both as to Paris and London.

The fact that George B. McClellan was born in Utrecht is easily assumed by some persons to preclude his eligibility for election as President.

This is not the case. A man born abroad of American parents is a "natural-born citizen" within the meaning of the Constitution. But there are many "favorite sons."

Starting Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Coughs and Colds to be unguessed. A recent example from T. J. McFarland, Boston:

"I had a cold for three years, and doctor'd at the time I was being benefited. Then I began taking New Discovery and a few bottles, curing all along and then I got a cold again. Fourth effective in curing all along and then I got another cold. Conscript on Pneumonia and Grippe, treated by Goodson Bros., Dentists, Seventh Street. That's bottles free, regular size 50c and 75c."

There was once a Boston woman, says Congressman Powers, of Massachusetts, who had afternoon fits, belonged to a Brownie club, fell ill, and finally died. When she had been in heaven some days her husband called her up through a spiritualist.

"Well, my dear," inquired her husband, "how do you like heaven?"

"Very well," she replied. "We have afternoon fits here, and also a Brownie club, after all. Honey, it's not Boston."—Philadelphia Ledger.

DEATH SUMMONED HIM AT SEA.

The hellos of the Friendly Hour Club, only son of Mrs. Jessie Jeffers of the First Presbyterian Church, will be shocked to learn of his sudden death December 19, as his wife, from Stegram on the steamer with her father in Central America. For several months had he been laid up for some time having been ill with fever. He left San Juan, Cuba, December 4, and had been making a slow return to health and home to Christ with his mother and friends, shortly after leaving San Juan, died suddenly while taking a walk along the shore. His body was passed to a cabin in a suit of the old medical coat and a full nursing. "After a short time his service paid by Captain Russell his life was completed."

Mr. Jeffers was a teacher and interested member of the Miguel. See the First Methodist Church of this city. He was born in Vicksburg, Miss., and made his life in the public school. He was a devout Christian and his friends were full of loving words and the expression of a happy reunion with his mother Christmas Day. His death, however, came before his mother's return from the news of his demise and until at sea Mr. Jeffers would have passed his twenty-first birthday in April.

WANTS TEN ACRES IN WEST OAKLAND FOR CHILDREN'S PLAY-GROUND.

The Aloha Club of West Oakland held a meeting last night, at which the matter of securing a children's playground was discussed. It was suggested that the ten acres of unimproved land in West Oakland would be a suitable place.

Among those present at the meeting were Withale Alexander, the president of the club, and Misses Benjamin H. Pendleton, Sydney L. Peixotto of San Francisco, and William Walsh, all of whom expressed their views on the subject and suggested various plans for carrying on the work.

Withale Alexander, president of the club, opened the meeting with a brief address. He said:

"The proposition of establishing a recreation park and children's playground on this piece of marsh land owned by the city is not a new one, but although it has been talked about for a number of years by the people of West Oakland to the present time no application of any kind has been taken.

The members of this club have resolved to make an attempt to bring about a realization of the project and if we are successful we feel sure that not only will the young people of this section of the city be directly benefited, but that the property owners in this vicinity will find that the improvement of what is at present a plot of worthless swamp land will considerably increase the value of their property."

Miss Elizabeth Pendleton said that her husband, a resident and property owner in West Oakland would take an interest in the matter of a children's playground.

"If the expense of improving the entire property is too great for the club to assume, one-half of the money was forthcoming. Of course, it would take longer, but if rightly managed the result would be the same," she said.

Miss Pendleton said that her husband, a resident and property owner in West Oakland would take an interest in the matter of a children's playground.

"The proposition has two sides, and it is always well to consider both," he said. "The city owns nearly ten acres of land situated between Eighteenth and Twenty-eighth streets on Peacock and at present this land is useless, except as a park, and an application for its use would be the only dividends of this section.

This might be offset in and sold or leased and the city derive an income from its holding, or it can be improved and turned into a recreation park and playground for the children. In my opinion the greatest benefit would be derived from the playground. At present the boys of the High School have to go out to Emeryville to practice baseball and football.

This might be offset in and sold or leased and the city derive an income from its holding, or it can be improved and turned into a recreation park and playground for the children. RELATIVES WANT WILL TAKE TIME INVESTIGATION.

NOT SATISFIED WITH THE VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY.

LOS ANGELES. December 24.—Relatives of Joseph and Louis Choiisser, father and son, of Equality, Ill., who were shot and killed by detectives in this city a week ago while resisting arrest, are taking steps to have the matter reopened, and an investigation had which will go behind the findings of the Coroner's Jury, and ascertain whether the officers were justified in the killing.

The relatives and friends of the dead men claim that the shooting was entirely unjustified and unwarranted.

Joseph Choiisser, the elder man, was wanted in Equality, Ill., on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Their presence in this city having been known to the Illinois officials, the local officers were telegraphed to arrest and hold the men.

When Detectives Hawley, Bowen and Murphy attempted to place the man under arrest at the Hotel Bronx, where they were staying, a fight ensued and both of the Choiissers were shot and instantly killed by the detectives.

The latter claimed self-defense, and a Coroner's jury duly exonerated them.

Since the holding of the inquest, other witnesses have come forward, whose statements contradict in every detail the testimony of the detectives, and which, if true, go far to show that the shooting by the officers was unjustifiable.

The District Attorney's office is making a thorough investigation.

AMUSEMENTS AT THE MACDONOUGH.

MAKES CHARGES AGAINST DOCTORS.

"Way Down East," Lottie Blair Parker's play of New England life, comes to the Macdonough tomorrow matinee and night. Saturday matinee and night and Sunday night.

It appeals not to a limited class, but to everybody with a spark of sympathy, a liking for an interesting story and a desire for clean wholesome fun. There are many reasons for its popularity: its pathos, its gaiety, its great humor, its charming pictures of country life, its quaint characters and striking realism, its more potent element undoubtedly the strong human interest that pervades the story. To this all classes and creeds must yield their sympathy. Mrs. Parker's work so admirably produced under the skillful direction of Mr. Grimes will be interpreted by a cast that has been especially selected for their different characters.

FOXY GRANDPA.

Melville Baker's cleverly devised scenes, episodes and bright lines, Joseph's charming music, the admirable work of Miss Hart and Miss De Mae, as Page, Grandpa and Rose Bright, and the all round excellence of the supporting company combine to make of "Foxy Grandpa" a veritable whirlwind of mirth and fun, and there is no cause for fear that the play will not be well received by the audience.

It has been played to great audience success, and the critics have agreed that it has been presented at the favor it has been given to the stage.

Personally, I am a member of the cast, and glad to note our order in California will investigate

you, Mr. Young.

Mr. Young owns a large walnut ranch near Carpinteria, and he thinks the occupation of the land will give the citizens agreeable to both himself and wife.

No successor for Principal Young has as yet been named.

WATSON WANTS HIS MONEY.

Suit to collect $2000 from D. H. Haskell was begun today by Warren M. Watson, who alleges that the money is due on two promissory notes for $1000 each and interest at 8 per cent from February 24, 1898.

Watson sets forth that the money was originally loaned Haskell by Mrs. Louise F. O'Brien and she in turn sold the notes to him. He states that none of the principal or interest has been paid and that the notes are now due.

THEY WILL BOWL FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP FORM

HOW THE TEAMS JEFF SAYS HE IS NEWS FROM THE WILL LINE UP. WILLING.

BOTH INDIANS AND RELIANCE WERE ON THE FIELD YESTERDAY.

CHAMPION MAY FIGHT MUNROE IN SAN FRANCISCO BE- FORE LONG.

Both the Carlisle Indians and the Reliance football players were out on the Richmond field yesterday afternoon, practicing at the same time on opposite ends of the ground, and incidentally casting hawk glances at each other.

The Indians were as swift as a well-oiled piece of machinery, and the heavy Reliance team surprised the few spectators with the speed it showed in formations against an imaginary opponent. If Reliance could have a month of need, the aggregation, strengthened as it is by men from various varieties, would give the Indians one of the hottestights of the season.

Play tomorrow will begin at 2 o'clock. The Indians, because of the limited training season Reliance has had, will be skirmished probably to twenty-five and twenty-six, instead of thirty-five, this will make it possible to bring the game between them at 4:30 p.m. The spectators plenty of time to get home an hour or more before time for Christmas dinner. The Indians will leave San Francisco on the evening of Dec. 26, and where they will go to the Southern California Indians at New Year's day.

Here is the way the teams will actually come out after the contest, showing also the Indians who will be in the Reliance players have been added:
